FAREWELL SONG

(Tune—"You'll Never Walk Alone")

We have walked through twelve years at Fairfield High,
And many a grand time we've had.
At the end of these years we are sad to leave
All our dear friends at Fairfield High.
We will graduate now, but we'll think of you here,
No matter where we roam.
Farewell, Farewell, friends and teachers, too;
How we wish we could stay with you.
Farewell dear Fairfield High.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we look back on our twelve years at Fairfield School we recall many unforgettable moments.

In the year 1945 we came into this building where Evelyn Albright welcomed us. Remember the day Jim Pike pushed Betty Ferguson in the waste basket and she had to be dumped out?

Lulu Bierman's tea-kettle clock intrigued us in second grade.

Third grade was highlighted by our rhythm band under the direction of Arlene Loudon. Wasn't the duplicator jelly good?

Ever hear of a chewing gum race? Ask our fourth grade teacher, Viola Eberhardt. This isn't the kind you are thinking of.

Joy of joys! A trip to Pittsburgh to see the zoo and planetarium! Ruth Miller even permitted us to ride the incline cars. We learned to wash windows because our chemistry experiments squirted. Fifth grade was fun.

Maralyn Bell entertained us at a Halloween party. Who was the old lady? It couldn't have been Charlie? Pauline Schwab prepared us for Junior High.

Because there were so many of us Wayne Hostetler put us in the study hall with the eighth grade. Changing classes was confusing.

Guidance class in the cafeteria became so much of a salt eating contest that the location of the class was changed in eighth grade. Raymond Cole had lots of patience with us.

Finally we were in high school, with Joe DeVincent as our home room teacher. Initiation, more fun! Our class officers were: President—Sue Davis; Vice President—Bob Chmura; Secretary—Betty Digman; Treasurer—Peg Sitler.

As Sophomores, E. Gordon Warner greeted us with his witty jokes. Our big social event was Freshman initiation. We elected these officers: President—Bob Chmura; Vice President—Joyce Detwiler; Secretary—Betty Digman; Treasurer—Maralyn Bell.

Our Junior year found us very busy under Marjorie Anderson's helping hands. We received our class rings in December. Our Junior play, "Date Bait", was presented on November 18. On May 4 we entertained at the Junior-Senior Prom, using the theme "Candyland". The class officers were: President—Nancy Mellinger; Vice President—Bob Chmura; Secretary—Joyce Detwiler; Treasurer—Maralyn Bell.

At last! Our Senior year with Walter DeSanti at the helm. The Black and White and the Annual gave us headaches. Our officers were: President—Joyce Detwiler; Vice President—Philip Converse; Secretary—Nancy Mellinger; Treasurer—Maralyn Bell; Student Council—Bob Guy.

Along with the humorus, we learned much and we will always remember our teachers and classmates at school and our parents who made it possible for us to attend Fairfield.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1957, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath and bestow:

To the Faculty our extra energy so that they can teach another year.

To the Juniors the trials and tribulations of being a Senior.

To the Sophomores all the good times we have had in high school.

To the Freshmen the hope of someday becoming Seniors.

Arthur Bell wills his height to Ronald Turney.

Maralyn Bell wills her treasurer's book to anyone who can't do simple arithmetic.

Thomas Brown wills his ability to play football to Larry Peppel.

Lois Brubaker wills her ability to work through high school to anyone who doesn't like to sleep.

Nancy Crider wills her page two of the Black and White to anyone in the Junior class.

Philip Converse wills his ability to get his schoolwork done to Michael Shields.

Howard Cope wills his ability to play basketball to Jerry Kaster.

Jo-Ann Cope wills her ability to get good grades without studying to her sister, Jacqueline.

Sue Davis wills her ability to be cheerleader for four years to Phyllis McCall.

Joyce Detwiler wills her ability to keep statistics at the basketball games to anyone who wants to get into the games free.

Rober Guy wills his ability to be a juvenile delinquent to Lee DeRhodes.

Sandra Kannal wills her ability to chew gum in music class to anyone who can get away with it.

Nancy Mellinger wills her ability to be assistant editor of both the Black and White and the annual to anyone who can stand the strain.

Charles Miner wills his love of sports to Raymond Wolfcomer.

James Pike wills his love of sleeping to anyone who likes to be late to school every morning.

James Rowan wills his position on the annual staff to anyone who has lots of spare time.

Loretta Tarka wills her love of talking in home room to anyone who thinks he can get away with it.

Helen Wilkes wills her shortness to Meryl Esenwein.

Robert Zarnosky wills his ability to build three cedar chests, one step table, two end tables, and one coffee table to anyone who can afford the material.

CLASS PROPHECY

One busy day, as I was serving the elite clientele at the Waldorf-Astoria, I heard a familiar voice ask for French fried snails. Little did I think that the vice president of the Motorola Corporation would be my former classmate, James Pike, who is on a business trip to New York for the company.

He informed me he flew up on a T.W.A. Constellation piloted by Arthur Bell. While on the plane he met Sandra Kannal who is now a Conover model. She was on her way back from Hollywood where she encountered Tom Brown, currently playing the Tarzan series on T.V. and in the movies.

As we were talking he told me that on a recent trip abroad he met Joyce Detwiler, a famous fashion designer in Paris. She told him that while on a trip to Italy she saw Nancy Mellinger who is teaching English in an Italian School. Bob Guy is also in Italy straightening the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

As we continued talking I told him I had seen Maralyn Bell on my last trip home. She is secretary to Charles Miner who is president of the Enterprise Company. I also saw Nancy Crider who is happily married and has three nice children.

Philip Converse, now in Africa, is well-known for his ability to farm a desert. Howard Cope is superintendent of the dairy department on the same farm.

Jo-Ann Cope resigned her secretarial position to marry her boss, Sue Davis is assuming the responsibility left by Jo-Ann. We wonder how long this will last.

Jim Rowan, now in Germany, is developing the second Frankenstein monster. Bob Zarnosky, a spy, has found some valuable information which will help Jim Rowan in his lab. He says he often has lunch with his cousin Loretta Tarka who is happily married, living in a houseboat on the Danube.

We have just been informed that Helen Wilkes has been transferred to France as head of the American WAVES in that country.

I had to say good-bye to Jim as he had another appointment. We surely wish that everyone could come back for just one more day at F.H.S.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

As the end of our Senior year draws nigh
We look back on our years at Fairfield High.
The dances, parties, games, and classes,
And also the Senior lads and lasses.

First comes Joyce, our president this year
Who never had her grades to fear;
But kept our class in order the whole year through
Even noisy Tom, think that wasn't hard to do?

Lorie with her full skirts would rustle up
the aisle,
She wore lots of crinolines, and they looked right in style.
When it came to math and science, Bob had little to fear,
To be an engineer is his chosen career.

And then there was Art, the woodsman of our class,
He skipped so many days that we wondered if he'd pass.
"Zar" was always here—waiting for the "May date".
He wants to be a carpenter after we graduate.

Maralyn could always be found with her treasurer's book in hand.
Her beautiful clothes were the finest in the land.
Jim Pike was always selling a TV set or two,
He sailed in his Chevy like a streak of blue.

There was Nancy Crider who had little to say,
She was always a real scout, anyway.
And Helen, so very short; a Presley fan
through and through,
But always willing to help when there was work to do.

Peppy, sweet, considerate Sue,
You'll find no other friend as tried and true.
And Nancy, with personality and popularity,
too,
She would do everything just to help you.

Cope and Cope, no they aren't related.
Jo-Ann, so clever and animated
Wouldn't have a brother as jolly as Howdie,
Who had so much fun because he was rowdy.

Jim Rowan's only great desire
Was to set the girls' hearts on fire.
And Louie, known to some as "Bru",
With school and her work she had lots to do.

Sandra was always quiet and kind,
A better friend you could not find.
And Curney too, was so shy,
In all his grades he ranked high.

In our class Charlie was the clown and Romeo,
You'd hear a noisy din wherever he would go.
Without Mr. DeSanti our class isn't complete,
He wasn't too tall, but he always looked neat.

Our class wasn't large, we have to admit,
But that didn't bother us a bit.
We had our share of problems and fun,
And we're rather proud of the lives we've begun.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Carol Weikart, Phyllis McCall, Joyce Baker, Sue Davis, Nancy Mellinger.

Howard Cope—Senior

Howdie was the best all around player we had this year. He had a very good jump shot that could be made from anywhere on the court.

Robert Guy—Senior

Tall and efficient was Bob. He was good at getting rebounds. He was also good in his shots.

Laverne Keslar—Sophomore

Laverne was a very worthwhile player on both offense and defense. He could be depended on to add points when needed.

Charles Miner—Senior

Charlie was a good player on offense and defense, and had a very good jump shot from the side.

Paul Esenwein—Junior

Paul was a good floor man and had a good driving shot. He could be depended on to add points when needed.

Thomas Brown—Senior

Tom's height helped our team to get rebounds. He was also good in his shots from the corner.

CONGRATULATIONS, NEW ALUMNAE

The past 12 years of your schooling have made boys and girls into the men and women you are today. You have learned the facts, dates, statistics, and data which have formed your ideas, opinions, and beliefs on everything you will now be facing.

The world is yours . . . to make better as you become the students, teachers, technicians, workers, voters, and parents of tomorrow. May you succeed in all you attempt.

A hearty handclasp of good wishes.
